SESSIONS

WHY STUDY GEOPOLITICS AND FORESIGHT?

Resource Wars, Identity Conflicts, Disinformation, Geostrategic Rivalries, Global Power Shift and increasing number of non-state actors, among others make it difficult to decipher the complexity of contemporary international relations. To make informed decisions it is necessary to anticipate the possible evolution of major trends, conflicts and the power rivalries that impact increasingly states and businesses. Geopolitical Assessment and Foresight are important tools to analyze current situations and anticipate their possible developments by taking into account the strategic, historical, geographical, demographic, economic and cultural spheres.

Objective of the Seminar: The principal objective of this Executive Seminar is to introduce the main elements of geopolitical assessment and strategic foresight and to integrate a case study analysis on geopolitical scenario building.

The target group of participants: persons working in various economic sectors, public servants, diplomats, employees of International Organisations, graduate students, and other interested individuals.
