

« GEOPOLITICS »

GENEVA INSTITUTE OF GEOPOLITICAL STUDIES (GIGS)

The principal objective of this Summer Course is to introduce the main concepts of the geopolitics. The course adopts an interdisciplinary approach that incorporates strategic, geographic, historic, cultural and economic dimensions in order to decipher the complexity of contemporary international relations.

The Geneva Institute of Geopolitical Studies (GIGS) offers different study programs in geopolitics and geoeconomics. The Institute undertakes research, provides expertise, publishes studies and organises conferences, symposiums and round table events in the fields of geopolitics and geoeconomics.

GIGS is entirely independent of political, ideological and economic organisations.

LECTURES

- Geopolitical Schools of Thought
- Enduring and Variable Factors of Geopolitical Analysis
- Geopolitics of Energy
- Geopolitical Factors of Switzerland
- Introduction to Strategy
- Geopolitics, Geoeconomics and Economic Intelligence
- The Transformation of War in an Evolving Geopolitical Context
- The Belt and Road Initiative in an Evolving Geoeconomic Context
- Geopolitics of Religions
- Geopolitics of Islam

Program Highlights and Learning Outcomes

- Develop the ability to apply the geopolitical analysis method in different case study situations;
- Integrate geopolitical factors in decision making processes;
- Participate actively in an interactive and non-conformist course;
- Develop your professional networks and exchange views with course participants having different national, cultural and professional backgrounds.

Target group of participants: Individuals working for International Organizations and government agencies, diplomats, people working in various economic sectors, university students and other interested individuals.

Tuition fee: 1'200 CHF for professionals & 700 CHF for students
Dates: Program starts on Monday 4 July and ends on Friday 8 July 2022

Application deadline: 12 May 2022

Schedule: Conferences take place between 9-12 AM & 2-5:30 PM.

Language: English

Certificate of participation will be awarded by GIGS upon completion of the course.

CONTACT

<https://geopolitics-geneva.ch/>
contact@geopolitics-geneva.ch

T: +41 (0) 76 509 17 63

LECTURERS

David Criekemans, holds a Doctorate on Geopolitical Schools of Thought and Master Degrees in Political Sciences (from the University of Antwerp), and in Public Administration (from the Catholic University of Leuven), Belgium. Currently, he is an Associate Professor in “Belgian and Comparative Foreign Policy” (at the University of Antwerp) and in International Relations (at the University College Roosevelt in the Netherlands). He has taught Geopolitics at the Royal Military Academy in Brussels. Main research areas of Dr. Criekemans’ are: geopolitical schools of thought, geopolitics of energy, regionalism and sub-state diplomacy. He is lecturer and member of the Scientific Council of GIGS. His main fields of expertise: geopolitical schools of thought, regionalism, and geopolitics of energy. Dr. Criekemans is author of several studies and books in the field of geopolitics including an in-depth study on the history of geopolitical thought from 1890 till present: “Geopolitics, ‘Geographic Consciousness’ of Foreign Policy?”, Publishing House Garant / Maklu (Antwerp).

Gyula Csurgai, holds a Doctorate from the University of Geneva. He obtained Degrees in Political Science from the University of Concordia (Canada) and the University of Toulouse (France) and Postgraduate Diplomas in European Studies and Philosophy from the University of Geneva. He is founding Member and Director of the Geneva Institute of Geopolitical Studies. Dr. Csurgai has been teaching Geopolitics, Geoeconomics and Economic Intelligence for over 20 years at different universities in Switzerland and in other countries. He has participated in several international research projects and has provided expertise to a number of international organizations, governments and private corporations. Dr. Csurgai published several books and articles in geopolitics and geoeconomics.

Manlio Graziano, holds a doctorate from the University of Grenoble. He teaches Geopolitics at the American Graduate School of International Relations and Diplomacy in Paris, and at Sorbonne University. He also taught at the “École supérieure de Relations Internationales” in Lyon and the LUISS University in Rome. He is a member of the editorial staff for the journal Outre-terre (Paris) and for the journal Geopolitical Affairs (London), and frequently collaborates with Limes, the Italian Geopolitical Review. He published among others: Il secolo cattolico. La strategia geopolitica della Chiesa, Rome, 2010; Barcelona, 2012; The Failure of Italian Nationhood: The Geopolitics of a Troubled Identity, Palgrave-Macmillan, New York, 2010; Holy War and Holy Alliance. Religions and Global Disorder in the 21st Century, 2017, Columbia University Press.

Alexandre Lambert, holds a Ph.D. in International Relations from the Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies, Geneva. Dr. Lambert has been lead researcher on the Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe (OSCE) at the Graduate Institute in Geneva, project officer at the Geneva Centre for the Democratic Control of Armed Forces (DCAF), and a civil servant at the Swiss Federal Department of Defense. He also provides independent policy advice to the OSCE Forum for Security Cooperation (FSC), including in the context of its regional operations in the Western Balkans, South Caucasus, and Central Asia. Dr. Lambert has published books and articles in the field of international politics and history and international security.

Alexandre Vautravers, holds Doctorate in Social, Economic Sciences and History from the Geneva University and the University of Lyon 2, France. Mr. Vautravers is an expert on strategic issues, security, global arms development and trade, and consultant for several Swiss media. He leads research teams for the Swiss Academy of Science and Technology and the Swiss Military History Commission. He is also the Chief Editor of the Swiss Military Review (RMS); Dr. Vautravers published several books on strategic and security issues. Dr. Vautravers has taught international relations and strategy at various universities in Switzerland. Mr. Vautravers was head of the Department of International Relations at Webster University, Geneva.

Bernard Wicht, holds a BA and a PhD in Law from the University of Fribourg, Switzerland. He was expert appointed to the European Commission and President of the Culture Committee at the Council of Europe. Dr. Wicht has taught Strategic Studies at Lausanne University’s Institute of Political and International Studies. Mr. Wicht is currently Head of International Affairs of the Swiss Conference of the Heads of Cantonal Public Education. Dr. Wicht published several books on the transformation of war, evolution of strategy and political systems in the long cycle perspective. He is also a lecturer and member of the Scientific Council of GIGS.

Anselm Zurfluh, graduated from the University of Nice, he holds two doctorates: one in history on “Historical demography and mentalities”; and the second one in ethnology. Specialized in Demography, Geopolitics, Anthropology, History of European Culture and Civilisation, he worked as Professor at the Stiftsschule Einsiedeln (1981-1989), and has been researcher, editor and publisher. He was also adviser in Educational Affairs at the Academy of Nice, and researcher at the Université d’Avignon. Between 2001 and 2017 Dr. Zurfluh was Director of the Institute and Museum of The Swiss Abroad in Geneva. He is author, editor and coordinator of several books and scientific publications in German, French and Italian.

INTERNATIONAL GENEVA

Geneva, world capital of diplomacy, is host to 85 International organizations, 250 non-governmental organizations (NGOs) and 173 States are represented in Geneva by a permanent mission or representation (to the United Nations Office at Geneva and to other international organizations, to the World Trade Organization - WTO – and/or the Conference on Disarmament).

BEATIFUL COURSE LOCATION

The Domaine de Penthes is situated in a magnificent park with lake view in the proximity of the United Nations and other International Organizations.

GENEVA INSTITUTE OF GEOPOLITICAL STUDIES (GIGS)

<https://geopolitics-geneva.ch/>
contact@geopolitics-geneva.ch